

Women Talk More Than Men; There's a Reason, Says Professor

Dr. Brill of N. Y. U. Says She Never Had to Perform Acts That Absorbed All Her Intellectual Energy.

Why do women talk more than men? Dr. A. A. Brill, professor of psychology at New York University and well known psycho-analyst, told the National Association of Teachers of Speech why at their convention at the university yesterday.

"There is no question that women are more voluble than men," said Dr. Brill, and, strange to say, none of the women delegates rose to argue with him. "Many discussions and explanations have been offered."

Dr. Brill offered one by Dr. Jespersen, the eminent philologist. It was couched very scientifically, but the gist of it is that woman's vocabulary is smaller and more centralized than man's, but always on tap. She can get at it very quickly, and does so frequently. Now man's lingual abilities are scattered. He cannot always get at it in time to have a comeback.

"Does this make it clear? Maybe it would have been better to give Dr. Brill's quotation of Dr. Jespersen verbafm. But Dr. Brill's own explanation was much better, and there is a lesson in it for every wife and every woman who hopes to be a wife.

"It is known," he said, "that in psychopathology, as in normal traits of character, there is a certain selectiveness when it comes to the formation of symptoms. The active, aggressive man has to struggle too hard to do much talking. On the other hand, the passive, attractive woman never had to perform acts that absorbed all her intellectual energy. Women of to-day, like their more primitive sisters, can cook and talk at the same time, and giving so much time to the child with whom she babbles and teaches to talk, she has developed her own speech."

It was not explained, however, why a woman must always have the last

THREE MEN ARRESTED IN HOLD-UP OF TRUCK

Fourth Taken Later On Charge of Receiving Stolen Goods.

Charged with grand larceny in the alleged theft yesterday afternoon of a package of gold leaf valued at $184, from the rear end of a truck owned by Schumacker Brothers, No. 45 Van Linden Avenue, Brooklyn, at Blocher Street and Broadway, three men were arrested last night at Blocher Street and West Broadway after a chase, and locked up in police headquarters.

The men described themselves as Abe Linick, nineteen, No. 325 East 13th Street; Albert Schwartz, nineteen, No. 231 Fifth Street, and James Margolio, eighteen, No. 248 East 13th Street. Detectives later arrested Frank Macalino, twenty-eight, No. 211 Avenue A, on a charge of criminally receiving stolen goods.

22 WERE ARRESTED IN RAID ON DICE GAME.

Twenty-two men were locked up in the Clinton Street Police Station early to-day after Detectives Norton, Sheehan and Selvy had raided an alleged dice game on the third floor of a building at 274 Grand Street. The men were charged with disorderly conduct. A gambling table was confiscated, according to the police, who say the game was for high stakes.

The raid was made after Patrolman Melash, of the Clinton Street Station, had reported he had seen a number of men entering the building and suspected they might be burglars.

ALCOHOL VICTIM FOUND ON FERRY

An unidentified man about thirty was taken from a Hamilton Avenue, Brooklyn, ferry boat to Bellevue Hospital last night, suffering from alcoholism. His condition was said to be serious. The Missing Persons Bureau has been asked to locate friends or relatives. The man is about 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighs about 135 pounds. He wore a brown suit, brown overcoat, brown shirt with attached collar, black hat and black shoes and socks. He has brown hair and brown eyes and is clean shaven.

DOMINION PRESS WINS.

Allotted Seat in Commons Gallery for First Time.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—For the first time the Speaker of the House of Commons has allotted a seat in the press gallery to a representative of the Dominion press. Space there is limited and speakers have always pleaded this as an excuse for excluding Dominion newspapermen. American correspondents are still excluded.

LOST $5,200 RING. ACTRESS REPORTS

The loss of a diamond ring she valued at $5,200 was reported to the West 47th Street Police Station last night by Miss Jean Jarvin, an actress of No. 323 Riverside Drive. She said she noticed the absence of the ring from her finger while having supper in a restaurant in West 48th Street. She had no idea when or where she had lost it.
